

The New Zealand Homebased Early Childhood Education Association

invites you to an

EDUCATOR INFORMATION EVENING

The executive team of the New Zealand Homebased Early Childhood Education Association has put together an information evening for homebased educators.

The purpose of the evening is twofold; a) to increase educator's awareness of their responsibilities as contractors and b) to offer assistance and "where to go" information.

There will be a panel of speakers who will address issues such insurance, tax, Ministry of Education regulations, financial issues etc.

Date: Tuesday, 8 February

Time: 7 – 9pm

Venue: Fairfield Baptist Church, 1101 Heaphy Terrace, Hamilton

The panel of speakers will include:

Carole Stovold – President: NZ Homebased Childcare
Early Childhood Education Assoc.

Carol Boaler – Inland Revenue Department (tax)

Amanda McKintosh - Board member NZHBCEA (financial issues)

Insurance representative to explain insurance requirements for educators

We encourage you all to come along as this will be a highly beneficial and informative session.
